

PLAN TO ENTERTAIN CATHOLIC ALUMNAE

Visit to Be Made to Washington by Delegates Attending Baltimore Convention.

CONVENES NOVEMBER 24

MISS IDA HILL BOWIE, Chairman reception committee.

Elaborate plans have been perfected for the entertainment Monday, November 27, of the delegates to the second biennial convention of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae.

The convention will be held in Baltimore November 24, 25 and 26, as guests of the Maryland state federation, under the direction of Mrs. Frank Philip Scribner, governor of Maryland alumnae associations and chairman of the local biennial board.

Friday morning, November 24, will witness the official opening of the convention, and later will take place a business meeting, which will comprise reports of chairmen of local biennial boards and reports of officers, and reports of committees. Special conferences on the three-fold activities of the federation—education, literature and social work—will form a prominent feature of this session.

At 4 p.m. a meeting of the nominating committee will be called and later a business meeting will take place at which the report of the nominating committee will be read.

Saturday morning, November 25, will be marked by a conference of special importance, at which reports of governors of states and provinces will be read, also the report of credentials committee. The afternoon will be occupied by the alumnae of Washington, in the evening will take place the convention banquet at the Belvedere Hotel.

Sunday, November 26, the program includes a solemn high mass at the cathedral, when his eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, will deliver the sermon. The afternoon will be known as "day of errors," and at 8:30 p.m. there will be a reception and installation of new officers.

The unusual feature of the entertainment is the "play day in Washington," whereby an opportunity is afforded to officers, delegates and friends to visit the National Capitol and enjoy the beauty, the historic and national interests of the city.

The Washington entertainment committee, of which Miss Ida Hill Bowie is chairman, plans to care for 3,000 guests from Baltimore and vicinity on a special train at the Union station at 10 a.m., where they will be met by the alumnae of Washington, who will escort them in special cars (arranged by Col. Henry May, chairman of the transportation committee) to the Catholic University of America. Here they will be tendered a reception by Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, the rector, and faculty.

The various buildings of the institution, Trinity College and the Catholic Sisters' College, a luncheon will be given them in the dining hall of the university.

The afternoon will be marked by many receptions and entertainments in their honor, and the closing feature of the day will be a function to be held in the evening at the Washington, tendered for this event.

Those to Receive Guests.

Assisting Miss Bowie in receiving the guests will be Mrs. Newton D. Baker, wife of the Secretary of War; Mrs. Edw. Douglas White, wife of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; Mrs. George Barnett, Mrs. P. P. Claxton, Mrs. Samuel J. Graham, Mrs. K. Franklin Lane, wife of the Secretary of the Interior; Marquise di Brolo Lanzo, Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Mrs. Edwin Sweet, Mrs. Gaillard Hunt, Mrs. Archibald Gracie and others.

One of the features of "Washington day" entertainment is to be the issuing of a souvenir program, on the first page of which is a sketch giving the early history of Catholicism in Washington, written by Miss Ella Loraine Duxbury, an alumnae of Georgetown Visitation Convent. The work of compiling this program is in charge of Mrs. W. N. Roach, Jr.

The meetings for the final arrangements will be held at the New Willard Hotel (the official headquarters of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae), Monday, October 23, 8 p.m.; Monday, November 6, 3 p.m.; and Tuesday, November 14, 8 p.m.

The International Federation of Catholic Alumnae holds its organization meeting in New York city, November, 1914, under the auspices and indorsement of the three American cardinals, seven archbishops and thirty-five bishops. The object is to unite the convent women for the purpose of upholding the ideal of Catholic womanhood, and of forwarding Catholic education and Catholic literature. Three vice presidents head these three departments. The organization has 175 associations and a membership of 30,000.

The second convention of the federation, called the constitutional convention, was held in Chicago last November, and those in attendance represented a territory extending from Canada to Alabama, from the New England states to California.

WOMEN'S NEW FALL SUITS

Values That Cannot Be Equaled Elsewhere for Less Than $25.00, At $18.50

Judged by every comparison—style, materials and workmanship—these suits are the best you will find anywhere at the price—judged by other stores' standards, they are real $25.00 values. They are the acme of fashion correctness—newest and smartest fall and winter models, with all the little touches of tailoring excellence found in garments of the better grades. An early selection will assure you just the suit you want and secure it for you at a saving from the price you would pay elsewhere for equal style and quality.

In tomorrow's sale are suits of Gabardine, Whipcord, Cheviot, Serge and Novelty Fabrics.

Guaranteed all-wool and permanent dye, two features worth emphasizing in a suit this season, owing to the uncertainty of the dye situation and advancing prices for woolsens.

Styles embrace Fur-trimmed Suits, Flare Models, Belted Effects, Strictly Tailored Modes, Clever Trimmed Designs and New Sport Suits.

The linings are of satin and guaranteed for a full season's wear. All the new autumn colors, including navy and black. Sizes for misses and women, up to 46.
